

Brannan Kyle Allen Memorial Scholarship

Born December 2, 2003, in Grand Junction, Colorado to Jimmy Allen and Tammy Goza. Brannan attended Fruita Monument High School. Brannan was a member of the Utah High School Rodeo Association, the FMHS Basketball Team, member of Victory Life Church, a former member of the Colorado Junior High School Rodeo Association, and the National Little Britches Rodeo Association. He enjoyed rodeo, basketball, welding, card tricks, and bowling. Voted the most extroverted in his class. He was a hard worker and an awesome big brother to Gentry and Clayton Goza. He was a Mama's Boy and he loved his parents dearly. He lived life to its fullest and made everyone smile and laugh at his antics. His aspirations included joining the service or attending college to pursue a job that would provide opportunities to rodeo with his Sister Gentry and brother Clayton and eventually provide for a family. Brannan left a mark on the hearts of everyone who knew him.
